

Calideoscope

By Calla Petersen

Four generations were present at the Christmas reunion at the home of Mrs. Ethel Campbell of Olivehurst. In direct line were Mrs. Campbell, her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Strausser of Roseville, their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Strausser and small daughter Nicki of Rocklin.

A three generation group was headed by Mr. and Mrs. Burley Ruth of Fresno, sister and brother-in-law of Mrs. Campbell. Coming from Fresno with them were their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barnes and children, and a son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ruth and children.

Three daughters and two sons of Mrs. Campbell were present, Mrs. Strausser of Roseville, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Campbell of Sacramento, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Campbell of Olivehurst, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Sconyers, San Lorenzo, and Mr. and Mrs. John Caccaro, Carmichael. Mrs. Penny Coleman, daughter of the Caccaro's, came from Massachusetts. She is the wife of an airman now stationed in Thailand.

In all, 40 were present, and all stayed overnight Christmas night, some sleeping in their own campers, some in sleeping bags on the living room floor, and some at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Campbell.

There was a bountiful Christmas dinner, exchange of gifts with toys for the children, music and singing and good-byes said late Sunday afternoon.

1971 chirstmas article for Ethel Rogers Campbell

Clipped By:

johnsonjodi
Fri, Oct 5, 2018